

PROGRAM EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

1. Pharmacy graduates will possess a high level of technical and professional experience in a variety of pharmaceutical science domains thereby address difficult issues in the field of pharmaceutical sciences.
2. Pharmacy graduates will possess human values, teamwork, a strong sense of ethics, effective communication skills to meet the needs of society and a commitment to continuing learning.
3. Pharmacy graduates can arrange and launch modest medical and healthcare service start-ups and take part in public welfare initiatives.
4. In order to enhance patient healthcare outcomes, pharmacy graduates will adopt a mindset that values patient-centered and community-based research.